Event Registration Is Open!

Registration for the 2017 U.S. International Kuo Shu Championship Tournament is now open. At this time, competitors are eligible to choose from over 280 youth and adult events for which to register, including internal and external forms, weapons, light contact, and full contact lei tai fighting. Once again, the USKSF will be sponsoring this event and holding it at the Hunt Valley Inn, a Wyndham Grand hotel located in Baltimore County, Maryland. To begin your online registration, click here. To download this year's tournament flyer, click here.

Registration to Become a TWKSF Certified International Referee Closes on June 25, 2017!

From Sunday, July 23-Friday, July 28, 2017, the TWKSF will conduct an International Referee Training Course at the Hunt Valley Inn, a Wyndham Grand hotel. This course offers participants instruction in the required skills and attributes necessary to referee and judge events at USKSF and TWKSF sanctioned events, including TWKSF World Tournament competitions. The course is open to both new participants and current referees seeking to advance from Level B to Level A, or Level A referees wishing to complete a refresher course.

The deadline to register for the training course is June 25, 2017. Prior to registering, please review the detailed information below:

- The USKSF will book your hotel room for you at our special rate. You will be responsible for room payment upon check-in. Please include the name of your roommate with your registration (2 occupants per room). If you choose to room privately, please indicate that as well.
- Inform us if you are taking the course to obtain Level B (new trainees), Level A (a referee who currently holds a Level B certification), or as a Level A referee taking a refresher course.
- Include your shirt size for your official referee shirt.
