Information for Kuo Shu Lei Tai Fighters – 2026

There will be a mandatory Lei Tai rules meeting for first time Lei Tai Competitors on Friday, July 24, 2026 at 8:30 pm. ALL LEI TAI FIGHTERS AND COACHES MUST ATTEND THIS MEETING. This meeting will cover rules as well as procedures for before, during, and after the fights. If you are fighting in an elimination match, you must be at the Lei Tai prep area no later than 6:00pm on Saturday Afternoon.

The fight order will be posted on the morning of Saturday, July 26. Each team coach or a representative of the competitor will have an opportunity to review the fight order on Sunday morning, prior to the issuance of the final fight order. Please listen to the announcements in the main ballroom on Saturday morning for information on the time the fight order will be available for review.

During the Lei Tai fighting matches, you will have 60 seconds to respond if your name is called. If you are not present, you will automatically forfeit the fight.

You must wear the regulation uniform and gear. Jewelry of any type (necklaces, earrings, rings, etc.) must be taken off prior to your fight. Failure to comply with these rules may result in disqualification.

Every fighter must have a minimum of one (1) coach and a maximum of two (2) coaches in each corner. Coaching from the corner or sidelines during the match is strictly prohibited and can result in technical fouls.

Tentative schedule for the fights:

Saturday July 25, 2026 7:00pm-11:00pm Elimination rounds
Sunday July 26, 2025 10:00am-3:00pm Final rounds

This schedule is subject to change.

You must take responsibility for finding the most current information. Please pay attention to any announcements regarding Lei Tai.

An awards ceremony will be held for Lei Tai competitors placing 1st through 4th on the afternoon of
